ABOUT

WHO WE ARE?

Amarpushp Educational and Welfare Society(AEWS) is a non-profit organization working passionately to provide education to the underprivileged and children who have dropped out of school.

We have waged a war against child labour and our priority is to get every child their fundamental right to education. AEWS is registered under the Societies Registration Act of 1860 in May 2011.

Our commitment extends to empowering women, fostering child development, skill development, games, promoting rural development, environment awareness, youth development services, and other initiatives.
